New album april 2013

Chanson Rock

He belongs to these rare French artists classified in the category of Anglo-Saxons influence rock songs which in their compositions recall these large American spaces yet still keep a typically French identity in the writing.

He is accompanied by the Alter Ego: Djé Léger on the guitar, Jean-Christophe Menguy on the bass and Pascal Contentin on drums.

Musically, he navigates between lyric and rock music trying to develop his obsessional themes: the road, journeys. To this, he adds subjects inspired from everyday human relations, the difficulties in communication and the desire to be elsewhere.
